

Effective Presentations Seminar

Referent: Steve Weir

This seminar is designed to

- Overcome your fears of speaking in English and develop more self-confidence when presenting.
- Learn the skills of “contact” with yourself, your material and your audience.
- Structure your contents so that you get your points across more clearly and efficiently.
- Gain many useful, key words and phrases for presentations.
- Learn how to handle questions from your audience, positively, and learn how to deal with difficult people and situations while presenting.
- Improve your intercultural communication competence for international presentation situations.
